Polycom® VVX™ 1500 Demo Kits

Q: What is a Polycom VVX 1500 Demo Kit?

A: It is a self contained demonstration kit that allows you to demo the VVX 1500's point to point voice and video calling capabilities without the need of the Internet.

Q: How will I know how to set it up?

A: There is an instruction manual inside each kit that will explain how to set it up and include a sample demo script. There is also a copy on the Polycom's PRC.

Q: What can I demonstrate with the kit?

A: You can use the demo kit to demonstrate the following:

- Point to point one-touch video calls (with speed dials programmed)
- The touch-based menu navigation
- Adding/deleting contacts
- Local audio call recording application via USB drive
- Customizing background
- Digital photo frame application

Q: How much does the kit weight?

A: Approximately 40 lbs

Q: What are the dimensions of the kit? Can it fit in an airplane overhead bin?

A: The equipment lies within a Pelican 1620 case which is: 24-13/16" x 19-3/8" x 13-7/8" (63 cm x 49.2 cm x 35.2 cm).

It will need to be checked if you are taking it with you on a plane. It is about the size of a large piece of luggage.

Q: Are there rollers on the bottom?

A: Yes, there are rollers on the case for easy portability.

Q: Can I purchase a kit from Polycom?

A: Not at this time, however you are free to build your own kit with the instructions listed below.

Q: How can I build my own kit?

A: There are 4 parts to building the demo kit. They are as follows:

1. (2) VVX 1500 Units (Polycom P/N 2200-18061-025)
2. (1) PoE Switch (Min. 2 PoE ports) We recommend Netgear FS108P
3. (1) USB stick with images (Images can be downloaded on PRC)
4. (1) 1620 Pelican case with foam*
